Headteacher's Update

Well done everyone 😊

I have been very busy looking at children's work on See-saw and Evidence Me, teacher's videos and lessons and books in school. I am so impressed with how hard everyone is working with their learning. Boys and girls, you know that I always expect and encourage you to try your best and work hard, so keep up the good work—I am very proud of all of you and love seeing your learning.

Provision in school for vulnerable pupils, pupils with additional needs and the children of critical workers—an update

We are all aware and concerned about the rise in cases of COVID, both nationally and locally. Many of our local schools in Droitwich and Worcester have seen a sharp rise in confirmed cases resulting in bubble, and in some cases whole school, closures. We remain vigilant in school with a comprehensive risk assessment in place and enhanced measures to try to protect everyone.

With rapid testing for staff being introduced from 25th January, coupled with a rise in cases, we are preparing our contingency plan to reduce pupil numbers in school should the need arise. We have asked for far more detailed and specific information, including evidence from employers, for those critical workers whose children currently attend school. This will allow us to prioritise places for the on site provision.

We know that all parents/carers and children want to be in school, however there is no escaping the fact that increased contact increases the risk of infections and outbreaks of COVID.

The message remains clear—follow government guidance and keep children at home for as much time as possible.

I know that critical worker parents/carers will have already received a letter containing some of the above information but I think it is important that all parents/carers hear the same message.

Thank you for your continued support.
